FROM Colonel J.C. Loch. C.B.E.

Chief Commandant,
Mysore State Troops, Bangalore.

Chief Secretary 12 DEC. 1931 Bangalore

To

The Chief Secretary to the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Bangalore.

2 DEC. 1931

SIR,

I have the honour to enclose herewith copy of a letter received from the Officer Commanding No. 3 M.T. Coy, I.A.S.C. in respect of the free issue of Military Driving Licenses to drivers of Military Vehicles, and request that a similar practice may be introduced in respect of the Mysore Mechanical Transport Corps, investing the Chief Commandant with the power of issuing Militar Driving Licenses to the Mechanical Transport Corps drivers annually without any fees.

I have the honour to be
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant

Loch Colonel,
Chief Commandant,
Mysore State Troops.

No. G.98/106 dated the 20th November from the Commanding Officer, No.3 Mechanical Transport Corps, I.A.S.C., Bangalore to the Chief Commandant, Mysore State Troops.

Reference: Your No. 5978 dated 17-11-1931.

Paragraph 27 to "Regulations for the Mechanical Transport Service in India" is reproduced below for your information:

Para 27.

(1) Officers and men driving mechanical transport vehicles are required to carry military driving licenses (I.A.F.M.T.2), but need not be in possession of Police licenses.

(2) Military driving licenses are issued by Mechanical Transport or Royal Tank Corps Unit Commanders, and must bear the stamp of issuing office. They form part of every driver's kit and must be produced at kit inspection.

(3) Licenses are valid for the calendar year only, and must be renewed annually on 1st January.

(4) N.C.Os and men proceeding on leave are forbidden to take their licenses with them, and must return them to the company office before departure.

(5) A military driving license does not empower the holder to drive a private car.

This driving license is issued free. A copy of the license is attached.
